Living in loving community

Some of us from St James have decided to meet to discuss and pray about ways in which we can actively welcome and support individuals with special needs (and their families) within our church and the wider community.

There is a growing recognition of the need to enable individuals of all abilities to participate fully in church life and grow in their faith, and we want to harness the desire and experience that exists within St James to do this. We have our next meeting on Thursday 9 July, 8.00pm. If you are interested in being involved or have knowledge and experience to share, please speak with either: Bernice Hardie (8883 7380) Celia Webster(8444 9875) Andrea Bleakley (8442 2902) Kirsten Austin (8444 2247) or Bernice@berincehardie.co.uk

One specific service we are hoping to establish by September, is a play-group for kids with learning disabilities, where parents/carers can be given the time and space to meet with each other and feel cared for, while their children have a safe and accepting environment in which to play and make friends.

If you are able to provide administrative or practical support (e.g. looking after the children as they play; baking cakes; offering individual prayer support for parents/carers; any form of pampering) to establish this much needed local resource, please contact Celia (8444 9875).
