About Today's Performers

Denis Desmond (Musical Director) started his musical career at the age of 12 on trumpet in his local Brass and Reed Band in Youghal, Co Cork, Ireland. On relocating to London in 1977 he discovered brass bands and has remained in brass banding throughout, with additional interest in ensemble playing and some orchestral groups.

Denis has performed with the RBL British Legion Hornsey Branch, Waltham Forest Co op, Fulwell, Beacontree, Epping Forest, Fairlop and London Metropolitan Brass whilst guesting for numerous other groups when invited to do so.

Denis started his conducting whilst in the RBL Hornsey Branch Band under the baton of Dave Laubach, a Salvationist and well known and respected conductor of his time. Continuing to conduct Denis progressed to become MD of Epping Forest Band, Pavillion Brass Band, Enfield Brass Band and has guest conducted many other bands and ensembles in the south east. These include both contesting and non contesting bands.

Denis is pleased to conduct London Metropolitan Brass Band for you today.
